Saturday-8pm

Rock and Roll Stole My Soul

by Adam Simcox (72min, London, UK)

2nd Place

A retrospective documentary about the best band you've never heard. In the mid 90's British band The Fury were on the verge of greatness. Their debut album was the most highly anticipated of the year, and, led by enigmatic frontman Scott Fury, it seemed like they really could be the first band since

The Beatles to conquer the world.

Sunday-5pm

Summer Trip

by Hiroshi Toda (73min, Uji, Japan)

3rd Place

Hirata and Kageyama are old friends from childhood. Now in their old age they have retired from their jobs, and they have made their minds up to hit the road for a change, leaving all cares behind. On the road they're taking their time to relax.
